UPDATE #1

Fundraising Conference

Research and experience teach us that few relationships are more important for Christian schools than the relationship between the Head of School and the Board President. With this in mind, I recently spent four days in Indianapolis, Indiana with our Board President, Danny Taylor. We learned from some of the nation's most highly regarded fundraising experts for non-profit entities. Fundraising is both an art and a science. Anyone who has spent any time with Danny quickly understands that he is a natural artist in the field of fundraising. We both learned so much about the science.

Equally as important, we got to know each other, and we quickly built rapport. Danny and I are likeminded in our love for Jesus and our passion for Christian education. He's a super sharp guy, and we are blessed to have him serve as our Board President. I have listed below a few of the accomplishments from our time together.

Accomplishments

Lots of lightbulbs lit up for me and enlightened my understanding of formal fundraising efforts.

Danny and I built rapport and shared vision. We encouraged, challenged, & inspired one another.

Danny and I developed important strategies for the upcoming school year.
